

Here By me

The personal globe

Design: Francesco Toselli

Graphics: Cecilia Marzocchi

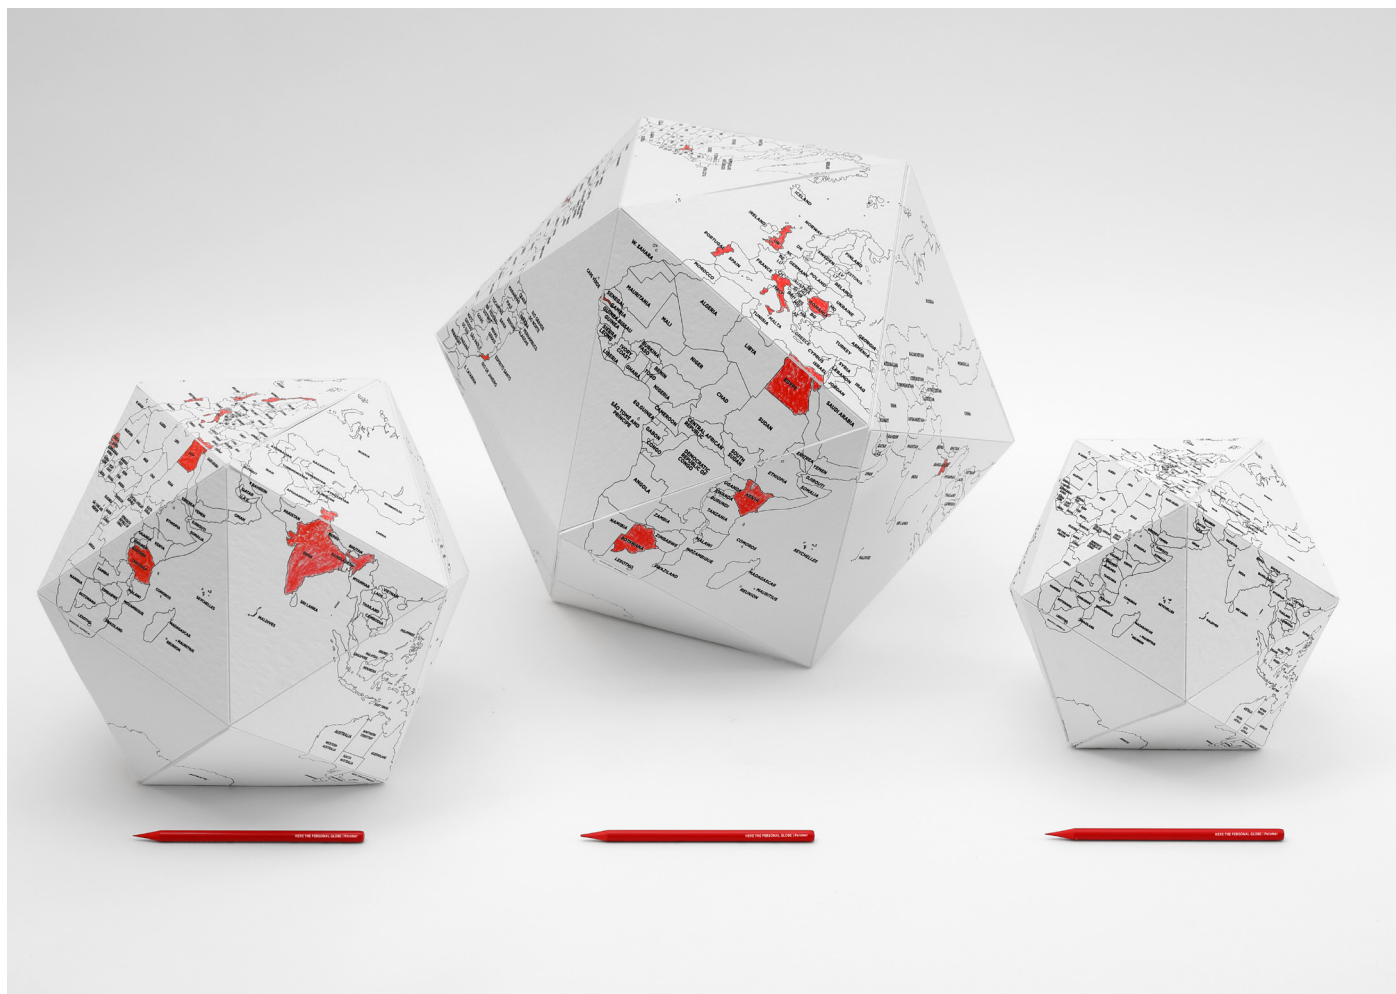

The world appears weightless, almost white, outlined only by the profile of the continents. Open and iconic.

The gesture of coloring is relaxing, contemplative, leaving your trace on the globe rekindles memories and the desire to go.

An active me mapping, more personal, more creative.

The world map that holds your mark, your drawing. Here by me.

Signs and drawings.
The colored tip of the pencil travels where you have been. Just you.

“The atlas is the book, the place where all the signs of the Earth, the natural and the cultural ones, are conventionally represented: mountains, lakes, oceans, cities, villages, stars, islands. In this totality of words and descriptions, we can find the place where we live, or where we’d like to go, and the path to follow”.
